Dear Brien:

Our Telethon tote board, in registering a final achievement of $54,921,586, is a reflection of the dedication and perseverance of our "Love Network" affiliates nationwide in the face of the tremendous blow dealt to the Gulf Coast by Hurricane Katrina.

That total could not have been achieved without WBFS's outstanding staff_of_dedicated professionals who carried on in MDA's behalf Labor Day weekend. The funds you helped raise will assure MDA's continued progress toward the day when, together, we win the battle against neuromuscular diseases.

As all of America now knows, MDA took as its own the cause of the Salvation Army's hurricane relief effort, among the beneficiaries of which are thousands served by MDA. All of us are comforted in knowing that the MDA families displaced from their homes and care providers by Katrina can look to both MDA and the Salvation Army for assistance as they begin to rebuild their lives.

You helped make the Labor Day Telethon a unique event in the history of this great country; for that you have my deepest gratitude.

Warm regards...

It was most gratifying to hear from so many of you following the Telethon of the overwhelmingly positive response of your viewers to our show's support of the Salvation Army Hurricane Katrina relief effort. As you know, in addition to a $1 million contribution from MDA itself, our Telethon raised in excess of an additional $1 million for the hurricane relief effort. Since many of the contributions that swelled that total came from your viewers, it's entirely fitting that you and your stations' staffs should share the pride we feel in the appended ultimate expression of thanks for our action -- a gracious letter of gratitude from the President of the United States.

Dear Brien:

No hurricane can blow away the pride I feel at the results of this year's Telethon. In many ways this was our best year yet -- not because of the dollar amount registered in the final total, but because the show made plain the essence of MDA and those who support us. Telethon 2005 was a testament to the power of caring and committed people to make a difference in the face of overwhelming odds.

This success was due in no small part to the tremendous support of you and your outstanding team at WBFS-TV. Despite very difficult circumstances, you skillfully rallied viewers behind MDA's cause while also generating support for those in harm's way on the Gulf Coast. For your talent, grace and professionalism, you have the gratitude of all of us at MDA.

More importantly, you have the gratitude of all those in your community who depend on MDA. It's thanks to dedicated efforts like yours that MDA's programs of support, medical care and research can continue to provide for youngsters and adults in the Miami area, as well as across the nation. To acknowledge all you do on behalf of people with neuromuscular diseases, both at Telethon time and year-round, a commemorative plaque is being sent via our local field representative, who will make arrangements with you for its presentation.

With warm regards and deep gratitude,

Please accept this letter of appreciation of behalf of the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation Miami/Ft. Ten years ago we started with only 1000 participants and although the rain attempted to wash out the day, our spirits and community involvement were not dampened with attendance this year topping out at over ten thousand strong. We attribute this increase in no small part to CBS 4 and your in-kind sponsorship and promotion of the event.

The partnership between us is invaluable and helps us to continue to be the largest funder of breast cancer initiatives in the country.

We thank you again and look forward to the wonderful ideas you have for 2006.

Dear Nelly:

The 22nd edition of the Miami Book Fair International just concluded with tremendous success. The weeklong book fair was a vibrant, stimulating and culturally diverse celebration of the written word. With close to 400 participating authors, this year was one of the most memorable in our history, marked by theatrical presentations, provocative discussions, and heart-warming encounters with readers. Hundreds of thousands of book lovers and children visited the Wolfson campus of Miami Dade College while the presence of international dignitaries enhanced the importance of our International Pavilions. Those who could not make it to downtown watched some of the authors via televised coverage on C-SPAN. Our press coverage was amplified by this year's media partnerships, as well as sponsorships from other national and local publications.

It is by means of your sponsorship that we can continue producing and expanding the quality of this massive community event, therefore, on behalf of the Board of Directors of Miami Book Fair International and the staff of the Florida Center for the Literary Arts, thank you for your generosity. We look forward to your partnering with us once again for the 23rd edition of Miami Book Fair International next November.

In the meantime, as we approach this special time of the year, we would like to wish you a joyous and peaceful holiday season!

Dear Friends:

On behalf of Miami Children's Hospital Foundation and the Hall of Fame Gala Committee, thank you very much for the purchase of two seats in the amount of $800.00. It is through the generosity of our friends and supporters that we are able to continue providing the finest pediatric care, education and research to the children of South Florida.

As you know, due to Hurricane Wilma, the annual International Pediatric Hall of Fame Gala was rescheduled for Friday, January 6, 2006 at the Radisson Downtown Hotel, with a special performance by Elayne Boosler and the induction of Dr. Fred J. Epstein and actress Dyan Cannon.

Miami Children's Hospital provides the most extensive array of medical services for children in South Florida. Thanks to donors like you, we continue to provide excellent pediatric care, education and research. Your contribution makes it possible for us to treat approximately 188,000 pediatric cases that seek our specialized services each year, the most of any children's hospital in South Florida.

Again, we thank you for your continued support,

Dear Eliott:

Thank you very much for serving as the master of ceremonies at the American Jewish Committee Centennial Community Service Award Dinner & Benefit Concert in memory of Shep King and in celebration of the King family. The warmth and camaraderie inspired by memories of Shep made the evening a fitting and cherished tribute and one that his friends and family will never forget. This magnificent event would not have been as successful as it was without your help and personal dedication.

The program was well attended with nearly 500 people and proved to be a memorable evening for all. We were able to increase both AJC's and the Shep King Endowment Fund's presence in the community by reaching out to many new people. The money raised will assist the AJC and the Shep King Endowment fund to further their important work: the AJC through innovative programs, education, research, extensive diplomatic advocacy, advancing freedom, liberty, tolerance and mutual respect; and the Shep King Endowment fund, by underwriting the education of deserving but disadvantaged Miami students.

As we discussed, I am hoping at some future date we will be able to arrange for you and your wife to participate in an AJC trip to Israel either through Project Interchange or our Latino Division.

Thank you again for your participation in this remarkable evening.

On behalf of Miami Dade College and the Miami International Film Festival, we would like to thank you for being part of the 2006 Festival. A record number of theater-goers, actors, directors, journalists, corporate sponsors and film industry professionals gathered in Miami in March to celebrate the work of talented filmmakers from almost every continent.

The 2006 Festival presented ninety-two features and twenty-five short films from thirty-one countries including ten World Premieres, thirty-four International, North American and U.S. Premieres and thirty-one East Coast Premieres. In addition, the Festival presented its fourth Career Achievement Award to internationally acclaimed director Wim Wenders.

The audience was overwhelmingly receptive to the program of films, as well as to the addition of the Colony Theatre as an official venue. The 2006 Festival also included the REEL Education Seminar Series, Miami Encuentros, and the inauguration of the "MIFF Abroad" program.

We are enclosing our final report on the 2006 Festival with this letter. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or comments. Preparations for the 2007 Festival will begin very shortly and we hope you will consider being part of the adventure next year as well. The tentative dates are March 2-11, 2007.

We thank you again for your commitment and steadfast support of the Miami International Film Festival. Your generosity is gratefully appreciated.

Thanks to WBFS-TV and WTVX-TV's commitment and that of other "Love Network" stations across the country, MDA is able to provide families affected by neuromuscular diseases with comprehensive services such as medical care, social support, summer camps and help with the purchase of assistive equipment. At the same time, MDA-supported researchers are able to continue their astounding progress in understanding and correcting the genetic defects that cause musclewasting diseases such as Duchenne muscular dystrophy. Many of their laboratory findings are now in clinical trials, and we'll continue to move them as quickly as possible toward practical treatments and cures.

Thank you again for being part of our "Love Network," for your dedication to and hard work in its behalf, and for the great generosity you show in supporting the programs of MDA.

Your informative, yet entertaining manner, gave all of us a keen insight into how mathematics and science are used everyday by the media and other facets of the community which have either direct or indirect influence over our daily lives. You enriched the conference and gave us much to contemplate as we go about our daily lives.

Most importantly however, there are many times in the classroom when students ask why they need to learn this or that. Your speech armed the audience with an arsenal of new responses, as you explained how you select a topic, research and develop it, then finally air your reports.

Congratulations for helping make the Angel Paws Honorary Luncheon and Fashion Show a great success. Our furry, four-legged friends are wagging their tails and purring triumphantly to learn we raised $20,000 at this event!

Our success could not have been realized without generous people like you who showed your support for our cause and our wonderful volunteers. Your charitable sponsorship of the event is truly appreciated.

All proceeds generated from the Angel Paws Honorary Luncheon and Fashion Show will help the thousands of orphaned animals cared for each year by the Humane Society of Broward County. These animals receive quality medical attention, vaccines and spay/neuter surgical procedures that can only be performed by trained veterinarians and clinic technicians.

Thank you again for your time and support of the Humane Society of Broward County and for helping give the animals a second chancel

Sincerely.

Mr. Brien Kennedy President & General Manager WBFS-TV 8900 NW 18th Terrace Miami, FL 33172

Dear Brien:

As we begin the New Year, I take a moment to give thanks for our many blessings – and especially for the support MDA is receiving from you and WBFS-TV.

Thanks to that support, we're not only seeing greater hope for the future for those with neuromuscular diseases due to the significant advances in our research efforts, but also greater help today through our health care services program.

May 2007 be a memorable year for you!

Warmest wishes for a most happy, healthy and successful New Year.

Sincerely,

GCW:yt

Elliott Rodriguez WFOR, TV 4 8900 NW 18th Terrace Doral, FL 33172

Dear Mr. Rodriguez:

Broward County Public Schools' Office of Prevention Programs would like to take this opportunity to express its heartfelt thanks and gratitude to WFOR, TV 4 for allotting us the time to share and discuss our Reality Avenue prevention programming series with the public. As shared with your viewers, our show aims to educate, inspire, and empower our students and community in hopes of reducing and preventing maladaptive behaviors. Your willingness to welcome the host of Reality Avenue to share this initiative played a crucial role in getting out the word about current issues that impact the lives of our young people and their families.

Broward County Public Schools would like to continue this collaboration with your organization in an effort to promote our mutual goal of securing a safer community and empowering our students for success. Your organization has a noble reputation for addressing and partnering with major organizations in the community in hopes of combating the pressing issues of our day. We wanted you to know how much we value the fact that we are recipients of such generosity.

We thank you for your involvement and we look forward to future collaborative endeavors that will benefit us all.

Sincerely,

Amalio C. Nieves

Shaun A. McDonald President and General Manager WFOR-TV/WBFS-TV 8900 N. W. 18th Terrace Miami, Florida 33172

Dear Shaun:

We are pleased to acknowledge CBS Television Stations' contribution of $5,000 on behalf of WFOR-TV to support minority scholarships in the School of Journalism and Mass Communication at Florida International University.

As private support is vital to the growth and success of the university and its students, your organization's contribution in support of scholarships is greatly appreciated. Your shared commitment to our students and the community we serve will not only help to foster educational excellence, but also to provide the broadcasting industry with talented, well-prepared professionals ready for the opportunity to succeed.

On behalf of the School of Journalism and Mass Communication and the students who will benefit from your generosity, thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Lillian Lodge Kopenhaver

Dean and Professor
